The Chips Collection, designed by Lucie Koldová, has at its heart a single lounge chair, ideal for relaxing in at home or in public spaces. The Chips has a striking, airy, hand-bent backrest, shaped like a potato chip, that forms the chair's entire back section. The seat's pocket springs provide hours of comfort, which can be enhanced by a removable back cushion or an ottoman in the same shape as the seat. The footrest from the same product family can also be added.
