

BONALDO

Olos pouf

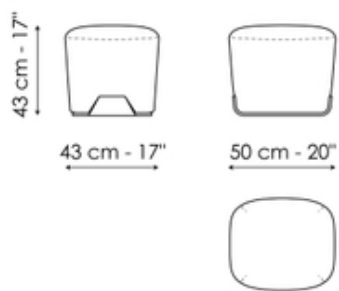

Designer: Mauro Lipparini

Soft and discreet, the modern footstool from the Olos collection is an element that completes the furniture found in the sleeping area but which is also perfectly at home in other areas of the house. The Olos pouf stands out both on account of its generous and rounded padding, and also because it is slightly raised off the ground thanks to the curved wooden base, a typical feature of the Olos collection.
